These Fire Dogs are of considerable historic interest, they are of Stuart origin and are believed to have been part of the furnishings of Nonsuch Palace. With that Palace they passed to Sir Robert Long, who did so much for the Stuart cause, and through the marriage of the heiress of the Longs into the family of the Wellesleys, Earls of Mornington, they have descended with other sets to their present owner. They have been exhibited on several occasions and in the Victoria and Albert Museum are to be found a pair of andirons very similar to these.—(Vide article by the late E. J. Dillon, Burlington Magazine, February, 1910.)
